

Mission Statement

Our mission is to empower toddlers and children through music and the arts to become confident, independent and communicative young people.

Our Ethos

We embrace all cultures and communities. We acknowledge the unique characteristics of children and work together to achieve positive, lasting outcomes.

Our Aims

- To provide accessible multi-arts opportunities to strengthen and empower our children's future
- To encourage children to experience, learn and communicate to the best of their ability
- To secure collaborative bridges between learning, health and wellbeing
- To continuously seek inspiration and guidance to strengthen life chances
- To extend our provision to reach communities across the globe

Children have the right to creative experiences that nurtures physical, intellectual and emotional development and communication, and increases life chances for the most vulnerable.

Our provision

- Is of the highest quality
- Is developmentally appropriate
- Respects children of all ages and ability
- Is progressive, creative and child-initiated
- Embraces all cultures and communities
- Recognises, encourages and nurtures peer and adult participation

Our Work Force

Creative, like-minded thinkers, practitioners and specialists will

- Share accessible skills to deliver our mission
- Be inclusive and respectful of our aims
- Communicate to the best of their ability
- Help us to collaborate with likeminded people, organisations and policy makers everywhere
